

Naresuan university Announcement

Re: Assessment Criteria for the Results of the Qualifying Examination of Ph.D. Students

.....

To ensure the appropriate and accurate assessment of the results of the Qualifying Examination of Ph.D. students using the same quality and standard in all graduate courses of Naresuan University.

Therefore, by virtue of Section 20 of Naresuan University Act B.E. 2533 together with the Academic Council Committee Resolution at the Meeting No. 4/2563 held on the 5th of May 2020 stating the criteria to assess the results of the Qualifying Examination of Ph.D. students, which are as follows:

1. This announcement is titled “Naresuan University Announcement on the Assessment Criteria for the results of the Qualifying Examination of Ph.D. Students of Naresuan University”.
2. This announcement is in effect for students with ID numbers starting from 57 onwards.
3. This announcement nullifies the Naresuan University Announcement on the Assessment Criteria for the Results of the Qualifying Examination of Ph.D. Students dated 28 November 2007.
4. For a written-only examination, students must get 70 percent and above to pass the Qualifying Examination.
5. For an examination that includes both the written part and interview part, the student must get a score of 50 percent or more in each part and must have a total average score of 70 percent or more to pass the Qualifying Examination.
6. The Naresuan University President is the person temporarily in charge of this announcement. In cases where problems arise concerning the implementation of this announcement, the President, being the person in charge, will make the decision, which is considered final and irrevocable.

Announcement dated 1 June 2020

(Honorary Professor Dr. Kanchana Ngourungsri)
President, Naresuan University